Notices for week commencing 16th June 2008

Sunday

This Sunday is a very important Sunday Service, as it is Martin Legg's final Church service. He has supported the company for many, many years and is also our company Chaplain. I would really like to give him the greatest respect by having a full turn out on Sunday. I do not expect you to wear uniform and you will receive 3 points for your effort. Please be in church by 10.25am

Thursday

There will be no Thursday club this week due to the fact that I am working.

Athletics

This Saturday is the Battalion Athletics competition. It is being held at the new stadium in Pickets Lock. Please can everyone turn up and support the company. Even if you don't like sports, we get a point for you just being involved. Last year we won the trophies and I would like to win it again this year. There will also be 3 other battalions taking part, so it will be more of a competition this year.

Please can you all meet at the hall at 12.15pm or over at Pickets Lock by 12.30pm.

125th Anniversary fun Day

As you know, The Boys Brigade will be 125 years old in October. To mark this great occasion, the battalion is holding an all age fun day. The day will be for all boys and staff in the battalion and will be crammed full of loads of activities, events, fun stuff and of course food.

The day is completely free (which is such a barging for all the activities arranged), and transport has been provided. All the staff will be going and it is going to be a great day.

However, as I mention above, there will be transport arranged and I need to know numbers of those who wish to attend.

If you have not got a letter and leaflet then please speak to me about getting one.

Jumble Sale

We will be holding our annual Jumble Sale on Saturday 19th July. Leaflets and posters will be available from next week. If you know any one who has some jumble, then please tell them about our jumble sale.

Camp

There are now only 7 weeks to go till camp.

Next week

Next week we will be going bowling at Hollywood Bowl in Finchley. Please arrive at the hall by 7.20pm as we will be leaving at 7.30pm sharp. There will be a small cost of £3 per person, which can be given to a member of staff at the bowling alley.

God Bless and have a good few weeks
