News

Your ever keen junior staff have planned a Saturday excursion to The HMS Belfast and the London Dungeon. There will be letters to take home to parents tonight. Please note the dates for returning the slips and the costs. Please see the paragraph regarding Sunday in relation to this trip.

Sunday

This Sunday is a special youth service, so please try and come along. It is being put on by young people for young people, so it's not going to be one of those typical church Sundays that I know that you are all so fond of!!

The next Church Parade is on Sunday the 13th February, which is the day after the London Cross Country. Just a small but important point to note, but if you want to come on the London trip you must attend the Church parade

Football

Well done to the seniors who thrashed the 133rd London 8-1 this Saturday. The next Senior match will be the decider for the league against the 10th/11th/1st Hodd. combined team. The next Junior match is this Saturday against the 10th London who we last beat 3-0. As I recall this was a tough match and by no means a walkover. It is too close to call at the top of the Junior league at the moment, so with only two matches left it is vital that we win both of them. It would be nice to see some parents coming along to support as well.

Swimming Gala

The swimming Gala is planned for Saturday 5th February. Details as to times etc will be put out later, but get practising if you can. We have come so close to winning this in recent years, and if we have a full team we have a very good chance of clinching the trophy. All to attend please.

Missing Boys

Some boys have been not present on a Monday for a few weeks now. I would ask that if you see them at school to speak to them and see what's happening, and that the Squad commanders of each squad contact their members and encourage them to attend. Not seen for a while are Lloyd Foster, Peter Halligan, and Duncan Edwards.

Have a nice week.
God Bless

Dear Parent/Guardian

On Saturday 26th Feb we are planning a trip for your son to visit two top London attractions. They will spend the morning on 'The HMS Belfast'. They will be able to explore the ships nine decks. They will be able to see the living areas, sick bays, captain bridge, engine rooms, gun turrets, anti- aircraft guns, radar rooms, canteen and much, much more.

Then after a spot of lunch they will off to the dark side, yes, we will be visiting 'The London Dungeon's'. We will spend the after noon exploring the world famous attraction.

Below is some more information on both attractions:

HMS Belfast served throughout the Second World War, playing a leading part in the destruction of the battle cruiser Scharnhorst, and also the Normandy Landings.

In service with the Royal Navy until 1965, she was saved for the nation in 1971 as a unique reminder of Britain's naval heritage.

Deep in the heart of London, buried beneath the paving stones of historic Southwark, lies the world's most chillingly famous horror attraction.

The London Dungeon brings more than 2,000 years of gruesomely authentic history vividly back to life....and death.

As you delve into the darkest chapters of our grim and bloody past, recreated in all its dreadful detail, remember: everything you experience really happened.

A warning - in the Dungeon's dark catacombs it always pays to keep your wits about you... some of the 'exhibits' have an unnerving habit of coming back to life...

We will be travelling to London by the Underground. We will meet at Bush Hill Park Station at 9.45am for a 10.06am train and will arrive back at Bush Hill Park Station at 5:25pm

The cost for the day is as follows (different for different ages due to entrance prices)

- 11 – 15 years old £15.05
- 15 – 16 years old £19.05
- 16+ years old £26.05

Please bring a packed lunch or some money for food. Please sign and return the slip below along with payment by Mon 7th Feb. Further information will be distributed to those boys who return their slip.

I give my permission for _____ to attend both attractions in London on 27/02/2005
