London Cross Country

Well done to the Cross Country team who ran through rain, sun and hailstones last Saturday at Greenwich Park. Unfortunately Ben was off with an injury, so it was always going to be tough to retain the trophy. The lads did a wonderful effort though, with Kadeem running in the group above his age level finishing in 5th, John 8th, Kym 10th, Rory 15th, Gavin 21st and Luke with a splendid effort and sprint finish to come in 25th. Total runners were over 30. We ended up finishing 2nd overall by three points only to the 6th West Kent. Bodes well for the future though, and I reckon that we will have our name on that trophy again before too long.

News

Congratulations on achieving possibly the lowest attendance at Church Parade, despite my talk with you all a couple of weeks ago. Thanks to Howard, Kym, Ben, Mark and Yanick who attended. I had apologies for absence from three boys, which makes 8. What happened to the other 10? I will say this for the last time. If I do not get a considerable improvement in attendance at the next ones, which are our NON-UNIFORM parade on the 13th March and the Battalion Parade on the 20th March, I will not be entering us for any of the up and coming Cup and 6 a side football matches.
