News

Thanks to John, Howard, Mark, Kym, Ben, Nicky, Merlin and Yanick who turned up at Church Parade yesterday. Add to this the 4 boys who let me know that they were playing for teams elsewhere and one boy who was sick makes 13. The three who Let the side down were Ben, Cameron and Rory. Where were you??

A brilliant semi final was played last Saturday between our junior team and the 10th/11th/1st Hodd combo. They had a full team of 9 plus subs, and we had 6, as Robert must of decided that seeing a rubbish team like West Ham was more important that playing for us. Cheers Rob. With our numbers down the opposition started confidently, and went 0-1 up after about 5 minutes. We pulled one back by a brilliant Kadeem shot, after Merlin had missed twice on an open goal. We then went 2-1 up after another Kadeem special, only to see them pull level 2-2 at half time. Revitalised by some splendidly prepared oranges, the six lads set about the opposition. Inspired by this show, Yanick made a darting run from the six yard box (about as darting as you can get with size 13 feet), to tap home our third. Kadeem scored his hat-trick soon after, but with about three minutes to go they pulled one back to make it 4-3. this set up a very tense final two minutes with Merlin set on standing on the ball in their corner, only to have it stolen and them nearly scoring. Only another brilliant save from Luke in Goal prevented the match going to penalties. Well done the Second!

We now face the 1st Enfield in the final this coming Saturday, so it would be jolly nice to have the whole team turn up, that is unless you have something else better to do Desmond!!

Football –

Junior cup final against the 1st. There is supposed to be a senior semi final against the 1st/12th/16th, but I am trying to get that put back to the 9th April as three of the 3rd's players can't make it. If the 1st wont allow this, then we will have to play anyway. If you do not hear from me in the week, assume that the match is ON.

Normal times apply.
