Notices for week commencing 15th April 2002

As I said at Parade last Monday. I wanted to see every boy at church parade this Sunday, or let me know beforehand if you couldn't make it. During the week I had 1 call from a boy to apologise, so when Sunday dawned I expected to see 15 boys in uniform ready for church parade. As it turned out only 5 turned up. THIS IS NOT good enough lads. Whatever you may think of church parade, it is part of BB life and should therefore be accepted as such. Church parade is important for many reasons, one of them being the public face of the Company. If parents or children visiting our church see rows of smart boys in uniform, they may wish to send their boys along, or the boys themselves may wish to join. This is important to us, as we need new recruits.

If you feel annoyed at not going to Quasar this evening, just remember what I said last week!!!

This coming Saturday 20th April is the Enfield and District 6 a side competition at Carterhatch Junior School. There are two age categories, 15 and Under and the open. No boy can play in both the under 15 and the open, although we can use the top year Junior section if need be. Be at the hall at 12:45 latest. Shin pads must be worn.

Last week I forgot to put up a list for those boys wishing to take part in the London sailing day on the 11th May. The list will be on the wall this evening.

I shall be sending invitations to your parents this week regarding the Annual Presentation and Awards night, where you will be awarded your badges and any trophies that have been won. This is a MUST ATTEND evening, no excuses. This will be Friday 17th May, starting at 7:00 p.m.

Also, letters will be out this week regarding the sailing/camping weekend at Barton Turf, Norfolk, on, 8th and 9th June

Thank you to those parents who have started to pay outstanding subs etc. There are still a few left but I am expecting those shortly. Camp deposits are coming in nicely, but don't forget.
