News

Today marks a very special occasion, because 115 years ago today, the 2nd Enfield Boys' Brigade was founded. The company has been going strong for all that time, and is still the strongest company in Enfield today. As current boys, you are playing a part in keeping your company strong for another 100 years. Happy Birthday Second Enfield.

This Monday you will receive a leaflet about 'operation Christmas Child', which is an organisation set up to give Christmas presents to children round the world who will receive nothing this year. Just imagine if you received no presents at all this Christmas (not even one). The way to help is detailed in the leaflet, but briefly, all you need to do is fill a shoe box with items of use, for example, a small toy, colouring pencils, balls etc. Then wrap up the box in Christmas paper and bring it along to bible class this coming Sunday. Please make sure you pick up a leaflet and read it.

Sunday

Sunday attendance is slowly getting better. There were 15 young people there on Sunday, 7 of them boys from the company. Now these 7 regularly attend on Sunday, so what about the rest of you. As you were reminded by Mr Ward last week, you need to have a certain number of Sunday attendances to be a part of the company. For those who have not managed to attend a bible class yet (and there are a few of you!) talk to those boys who come often and find out how fun it can be.

Remember, Sunday 13th November is Remembrance Day. This means full commitment from everyone. You all know in advance, so no excuse please.

Football

There is no match this Saturday and unless told differently, no football training this Thursday. The National 5-a-side football competition (round 1), is on Saturday 3rd December at 7pm. We can enter a squad of 8, so some serious training for this will start soon.

Forth Coming Events

Bowling Competition – 5 of you showed an interest in taking part in this competition. Anyone else who would like to be involved please make your self known to a member of staff. The date for this is, Saturday 12th November at 10am. Time and transport arrangements will be confirmed next Monday.

PR Games and Basketball -3rd December. We will be finalising teams for these competitions next week, so please let a member of staff know if you are interested in representing the company.

Hope you have a good week.

God Bless
