News

First of all on behalf of the Company, I would like to offer a big thank you to Chris, Andrew and Peter for organising such a magnificent celebration dinner and re-union on Saturday. Over 90 old boys and wives attended, and it was great to see many old faces from the past. Thanks also to Sgt John Murfitt and Cpl. Rory Richards who stood in the freezing cold acting as honour guard to welcome us all in. Many came up to me during the course of the evening to enquire how the Company was and to wish us all well in the work that we are doing. The evening started with a champagne reception, and as each guest was led into the dining hall they were greeted by myself and past captains of the Company. The opening grace was said by the Rev, Ralph Eveleigh followed by a splendid meal of soup, chicken and of course, Plum Duff, which was paraded into the dining hall in true 2nd Enfield fashion, complete with Horns!. After some very amusing speeches, we were all led into a side room to see a 30 minute film about the history of our Company. This went down very well indeed. I am sure if you speak to Chris he will let you have a copy. The evening ended at around 1a.m. with many hearty farewells and promises to meet again in time for our 125th.

Sunday

This Coming Sunday 13th November is Remembrance Day. This means full commitment from everyone. You all know in advance, so no excuse please. As we have two parades that day, our own one in the morning and the battalion one in the afternoon, and as there is only something like an hour or so between them, we will all be going to McDonalds or somewhere similar for lunch. The company will be contributing enough for a lunch, but if you require any extras please bring some money along for yourself. Times: Be at the Hall in full uniform 10:00 please. Especially those senior boys who are in the Colour Party. If you haven't yet ordered your uniform, school uniform is acceptable.

The date for this is this Saturday 12th November. PLEASE BE AT THE HALL AT 9:00 A.M. The Cost for each competitor will be £5.00, which includes two games of Ten Pin Bowling (also includes admission fee and shoe hire).

Finally, it is with sadness that I learnt this afternoon of the death of Andrew Caddies' brother in Thailand. Those of you who were at bible class a couple if weeks ago will remember Andrew mentioning that his brother had collapsed for no apparent reason recently, but that all was now well. His sudden and unexpected death is a great shock. I know that you will all include Andrew and his family in your prayers.

God Bless
