Notices for week commencing 13th May 2002

Welcome back to the final session of this year, culminating in the extravaganza that is CAMP. Those of you that have yet to put pen to paper and sent in your deposit. As soon as possible please.

The Annual Presentation and Awards night, where you will be awarded your badges and any trophies that have been won is this coming FRIDAY 17th May starting at 7:00 p.m.. This is a MUST ATTEND evening, no excuses. Full Uniform as the Company Photograph will be taken after the service. Those of you who have trophies awarded last year must bring them back.

Football, and the final match of the season is this Saturday verses the 133rd. usual kick off time.

Cricket. This has been postponed by London District, not us, to a date that is yet to be arranged. As soon as I hear I will let you know.

The Sailing and Campcraft weekend on 7th to 9th of June is priced at £60 per person, which is excellent value considering that this includes food, accommodation and sailing tuition. It is guaranteed that this is going to be an enjoyable event.
