Camp and Sunday attendance

It was very embarrassing as a member of staff sitting in church on Sunday with only 3 boy's there supporting the company. 2 more boys arrived late and one was not in uniform, which is still not good, but is better than not turning up at all. What can I say, it did us no favors as a company! Have a think about this, when you turn up to football, but not to church.

We still urgently need deposits for Camp, the field and tents have been booked and they now need to be paid for.

Church Parade

This coming Sunday is a very important Church Parade. It is a Battalion Church Parade which is being held at the newly opened 18th Enfield Company, who are in Bounds Green. This is their first time holding a Battalion parade and we want to show them great support. We usually have the biggest turn out of boys, and I would like to see us being the biggest company on parade once again.

Please meet at the hall by 9.10am or meet on the Green at the junction of Truro Road and Finsbury Road, Bounds Green by 9-40am.

Football

There is Football this Saturday against 133rd London. Please be at the hall by 2.10 or 2.30 at Caterhatch. We must win the game to stay in the title race, so please can everyone turn up! We also have games on the 25th March and 1st April so keep those Saturday afternoons free aswell.

Norfolk Broads

There are still a couple of places left for the Norfolk Broads trip in April. I can heartily recommend this trip, which will not only teach you a new skill in the form of sailing, but also prove a beneficial time for fellowship and a chance to see some of the senior staff in the wild so to speak!

Hope you all have a good week.
God Bless
