Camp and Sunday attendance

Still waiting for deposits for camp. If you do want to go then please get your £25 deposits in ASAP or we might have to cancel camp.

Please make a note that we have been asked to support the Girls Brigade by attending their Battalion Church Parade. This is being held at our church on Sunday 2nd April. This will be followed by yet another church parade on the 9th as it is the second Sunday of the month. Don't say that we haven't given you chances to get your attendance up.

The following Sunday after that (16th) we will be away with some of the seniors on the Broads

This Sunday is bible class as usual, please be at the church by 10.25am and it will be finished by 11.30am. There might also be a chance of the 'flying session' this coming Sunday for those boys who achieved 50% Sunday attendance, although this will depend on recent commitment and also the weather. The boys involved in this will be notified by Mr Rushbrook by Saturday if it is going ahead.

Church Parade

Thank you to the 6 boy's who supported our company and the battalion at the Battalion Church Parade on Sunday. I think I can say we were the smartest company on parade.

Football

It was a very hard performance this week against a revitalised 133rd team. Yanick scored the only goal of the match. We only had 8 players against their 9 and their unbelievably blind referee, which will not be good enough against the likes of 10th/11th Enfield, who also have, a very strong side and shall we say 'creative' referee's.

No football this Saturday, although Mr Hitchcock will contact you if there are any changes.

Norfolk Broads

The Norfolk Broads badge classes are well underway now, with the group learning all kinds of useful knowledge. I must thank Mr Neate for giving up his one night a week when he is of duty, to run these classes.

Hope you all have a good week.
God Bless
