News

We only have a few more uniformed meetings left till the start of the summer session but I would like to remind everyone that full uniform is still required on parade and that we start prompt at 7.30. Turning up after 7.30 and not in uniform will not be tolerated. Please respect the rules of the company so we can end the formal part of the year on a good note.

We are also going to encourage the top junior section boys to start coming on Monday night's once we start the summer session. We all need to make sure they feel welcome and happy, and help to make sure they enjoy themselves. We must all remember that the future of the company is with the new member coming up.

Camp

There are only 4 months till camp, so please get your moneys in quick.

Church Parade

This Sunday is Church Parade. We are supporting our girls Brigade who are holding their battalion service at our church. Please meet at the hall at 10.10 in full uniform. This will be followed by yet another church parade on the 9th as it is the second Sunday of the month. Don't say that we haven't given you chances to get your attendance up.

Football

We were a bit lucky Saturday as only 7 boys turned up to play football for us. But the 10th London conceded both games as they only had 3 boys. Well done to the boys that turned up, and took part in a friendly game.

This Saturday, April 1st, is the final league games this season. We have a double header against 10th/11th Enfield. Mr Hitchcock has not received the official up to date league table, but he has worked out that we are top on 30 points, with 10/11th Enfield second on 28 points. There are 6 points up for grabs this Saturday, so can everybody please turn up and make sure we win the league. It is in your hands (or feet) whether we win or not. I believe you will make 2nd Enfield history if you do so, as we have not won this before!! Please can the whole company be at the hall at 1.15 sharp or 1.45 at Caterhatch.

Norfolk Broads

The Norfolk Broads badge classes are well underway now, with the group going out tonight to practice sailing on a lake.

Hope you all have a good week.

God Bless
