Notices for week commencing 15th May 06

News

Our summer session is well under way, with the opening game of Danish Rounders played last Monday. Lots of fun things have been arranged for the coming Mondays. Next Monday we will be going swimming, so please meet in the James hall at 7.15 with your swimming stuff and £3.00 to cover entrance costs.

Church

It was a bit of a shame that there were only 5 boys at church Parade yesterday. NCOs should be setting an example to the rest of the company. Thank you to the 5 boys who did turn up. I must remind you that Bible class still runs throughout the summer session. There are now 9 possible Sundays left till we go to camp for you to improve your church attendance. Mr Rushbrook will be speaking to individuals who have not attended enough Sundays so far.

Camp

There are only 10 weeks left till we go to camp. The deadline for deposits is now. You should have also received a Parental Consent form which needs to be signed and returned by next Monday as well. It is very hard to arrange transport and sort out other costs, when we still don't know definite numbers. I will be contacting parents this week who have not yet made a definite decision.

Football

There is still no news regarding the 6-a-side football competition. As you know we are into the semi final. As soon as there is a date, Mr Hitchcock will inform the team.

Football Kit

As I mentioned last week the football kit is very depleted, with only 1 pair of shorts, 3 pairs of socks and 5 tops left in the bag. Please return any items of kit you may have at home back to us so we can see what needs replacing before the new season. Even if you don't think you have anything, please look in the back of your draws and cupboards in case you have.

Hope you all have a good week
God Bless
