Newsletter No. 148

Notices for week commencing 22nd May 06

News

Not much for the Newsletter this week as we are well into the summer session. I trust everybody is enjoying themselves. Next Monday is a Bank Holiday, so there will be no meeting. The following Monday (5th June), we will be going out if the weather permits us. Please meet in the James Hall at 7.30.

Camp

The deadline to get deposits in for camp is tonight. You also need to get a signed Parental Consent form in A.S.A.P. as you will not be allowed to attend Camp with out one. We will be arranging a Parents Camp Meeting in a few weeks were all relevant information will be given out and any questions will be answered.

Football

There is still no news regarding the 6-a-side football competition. As you know we are into the semi final. As soon as there is a date, Mr Hitchcock will inform the team.

And Finally

The next time we all meet up, Mr McBride will no longer be a free man, as he will have got married. The big day is Saturday 3rd June and we all wish him the best of luck (he'll need it!)

Hope you all have a good week
God Bless
