Notices for week commencing 27th November 2006

General News

Well, we have nearly reached the end of the session. Next Monday will be the last uniformed Monday of 2006. The Monday after that is carolling. More details on that below.

Please note that Sunday 17th December is the Family Christmas Carol Concert in the church. It would be fantastic if you and your family could come along and join in the service. All the staff will be there, and it is a really happy and Christmassy service. I will let you know times next week.

Sunday

This Sunday is normal bible class. Please meet in the church at 10.30 (no uniform). Once again we will go out the back for some more mayhem and laughter, as it is a Mr Rushbrook extravaganza. The following Sunday (10th Dec) is the last Church Parade of the year. Please meet in the James Hall at 10.10 am.

Football

The next games are on the 9th December, probably against the 12th/16th/1st Hodd, who have still yet to win a game. More information on this next week.

Thursdays

There will be no more Thursday Club now until after the New Year. We have lots of plans for Thursdays and will have a whole programme of evenings for you, starting in January.

Competitions

This Saturday is the Basket ball competition. Please sign up on the sheet on the notice board if you would like to be in the team. We need 6 or more players, and we can change players as much as we like.

If you do want to play, please meet at the hall this Saturday at 1.15pm or at Southgate School at 1.40pm. The kit will be provided but please bring trainers.

Carolling

It's that time of year again, so get ready by polishing up your best politeness smile and let's get those donations in. We are due to go out on Monday 11th, Tuesday 12th & Wednesday 13th December. As much help as possible please, so we can cover as many roads as possible. The more roads we can cover, the more money we can raise for the company, which will go toward activities such as Camp 2007.

As Mr Rushbrook said last week, there will be lashing of drinking chocolate, loads of hot dogs and gallons and gallons of left over chilli.

Hope you have a good week
God Bless
