General News

Firstly some sad news. We learnt last week of the death of Mrs Brickel, a loyal supporter of our company for many years. All of the senior staff remember her as cook at camp, a position that she held for longer than anyone can remember, as well as taking the cookery badge class on Monday evenings. Her death was quite unexpected and our thoughts and prayers must go to her family at this time, and to give thanks for the work and loyalty that she gave to our Company.

Football

This weekend saw us on the road to sunny Bedford (!) to take part in the under 14s National 5-a-side competition. Charlie, Michael, Cory, and Darnell managed to withstand Jakes incessant babble at 200 decibels on the M1 to take part. As this was the first time that we have entered the competition, and the fact that all the lads were as young as you can get, I wasn't expecting miracles, but when they won the first game against the 2nd Bedford I wondered if I was in for a surprise. Alas it was not to be, as we crashed to a 7-0 defeat against the strongest team, the 10th Wolverhampton, (isn't their accent annoying?) in our second game, and then only woke up in the second half of the last match, too late to rescue a 4-1 defeat against a team from Northampton. There was no need to feel to downhearted though, as next year, apart from being a year older and bigger, we should have some serious practice and experience at playing at this level.

This weekend, the Seniors match has been cancelled against the 1st Barnet, but there is a Junior Match. Juniors to meet 1.15 at the hall or 1.45 at Caterhatch. ALL boys under 15 to turn up, for the last game we only just had enough boys to start. If you can not make it please let Mr Hitchcock know. We could have won the last game if the whole team had turned up.

This weeks League tables are on the wall.

Thursdays

Please ask Mr Caddies if there is a club night, as he didn't let me know. .

PR Games

Thanks to Merlin, Ben, Charlie, Gavin, Nicky and Luke who took part in the PR games comp last Thursday. We have the results soon.

Company Supper

You will all have had letters regarding this. Please make sure that you let Mr Caddies know if you will be attending, and make sure that you take a note of the times. There will be quite a number of 'Old Boys' from the company, from who lots of money can be sponged, but we need to give a good impression, so make sure that you all have a wash beforehand.

Finally, camp deposits are coming in, so please make sure that you get yours in soon.

Hope you have a good week
God Bless
