Newsletter No. 20

Notices for week commencing 23rd September 2002

This Thursday the Battalion 10 Pin bowling competition is taking place at the David Lloyd Centre. We almost beat the 1st Enfield last year to come top, and did well in the London District, so I am hoping for great things this time. If you want to play give your names to either Andrew or Chris. Be at the hall at 6:45p.m. or at David Lloyds at 7p.m.

Thanks also to the boys who turned up to football training last Thursday. Eight boys turned up. Well done and thanks. I haven't had the fixture list through yet, but Mr Griffiths will be letting the team know in good time.

Harvest festival

This coming Sunday is Harvest Festival. I would like to see as many boys there as possible this Sunday. A note detailing what gifts are required is with this newsletter

Battalion Weekend Camp.

This will be the weekend of the 5th/6th and the cost will be £15 for the weekend. We will have to provide our own tents, and you will be cooking for yourself. Boys who did the camp-craft badge last year but not the practical will be expected to attend. More details later.

Uniform

If any of you need items of uniform please send in the sheet that I sent to your parents last week. You will be expected to wear the uniform, without bits missing, at each parade night unless otherwise informed.

Camp

Camp next year has been booked for Saturday 2nd to 9th August, and this year we are going abroad...well, the Isle of Wight to be precise. A £20 Deposit will secure your place. Please reserve that date in your diaries.

This coming week

Thursday 26th September

Football Training. 7:15p.m. at the Hall. All team members to attend plus any others that wish to come along.

Sunday 29th September

Harvest Festival 10:15a.m.

Monday 30th September

Parade Night

If you have any questions about the above, or on any other relative matters, please don't hesitate to talk to me.

God Bless
