Notices for week commencing 17th March 2008

Sunday

At it is Easter, there will be a family service this Sunday. This means it is just a normal church service. No uniform is required. Please arrive at the usual time of 10.30am.

Tuesday

This Tuesday there will be practices in the hall for the Drill competitions. Euan & Joseph will be required from 7.30pm to 8.10pm. Everyone in the small squad competition, you will be required from 8.00pm - 8.45pm. The 3 boys who are in the 3 man colour competition will be required from 8.45pm to 9.30pm. If you know that you have been asked to represent the company in one of these competitions then please make every effort to turn up for the practice.

Thursday

This Thursday the battalion is holding the Drill competitions. Please can anyone who is involved in any of the drill competitions please meet at the hall at 7.30pm. You will be dropped off home after the competition at around 9.30pm.

Please note that there will be no Thursday club this week, as the hall is being used. However it will be back on next Thursday. Even know there is no meeting next Monday, the Thursday club will still run.

Football

Thank you to the juniors who turned up for the first part of the 5-a-side league on Saturday. We had a full team, and subs. We started very well, with the team winning the first match, and then they drew the second match and lost the last game of the day. There are another 2 dates set aside for the rest of this league, with another 6 games to play, so we are in with a good chance of winning.

The next date is on Saturday 29th March. Mr Hitchcock will be contacting the team next week with meeting times.

Next week

It is a bank holiday next Monday, so there will be no BB. However, as I mentioned above, there will still be a games night next Thursday. The next Monday meeting will be on the following Monday, which is the 31st March.

God Bless and happy Easter
