Newsletter No. 28

Notices for week commencing 16th December 2002

Ok, as this is the last newsletter for 2002, as well as the last meeting, thanks for all your help over the past year. The Company is starting to grow again steadily, mainly from existing boys bringing friends in. This is really important to us as it not only ensures our survival, but enables a wider variety of activities to be planned, as well as the ability to enter

Football – Last Saturday we played the 10th Enfield and even though we lost, we have been awarded the points. This results from me putting in a complaint as they had played an overage player in goal.

Sadly we didn't do so well in the Battalion 5-a-side contest, but Ben wins the prize for best poser. Every time I looked round to find where he was he was in the process on taking off/putting on his shirt in front of the 1st Enfields floozies. Obviously he has been taking chat up lessons from Terry Burgess!!!

Thanks to everyone who turned up to Carolling last Monday. We raised just over £250 in one night. Well done. (if you subtract the amount of sausages Peter Halligan consumed afterwards we came to a nett loss of £7.44, but at least we tried.

The Company takes a break now to enable the staff to visit health farms, therapy clinics etc. Our first Monday back will be MONDAY 6th January 2003. (unless otherwise informed)

From myself and the rest of the staff, we wish you a Happy and Safe Christmas, as well as a healthy and Prosperous New Year.

This is me, signing off and shutting down for xmas, in a darkened room under the stairs.....

God Bless

Alan Rushbrook

Officer in Charge – Company Section
