Newsletter No. 31

Notices for week commencing 20th January 2003

Thanks to Ben, Richard, Anthony, Lloyd, Gavin, Merlin, Luke & Nicky, who turned up on Saturday for the north London District Cross country race. 43 boys from 6 different Companies took part, and the results were as follows;

Seniors

1st – Ben O'Donoghue - .13th – Richard Lyus – 22nd – Anthony Dibley-Harper. Team result 2nd overall

Company Section

3rd – Lloyd Foster, 6th - Gavin Rees, 8th – Nicky Karpasitis, 12th – Merlin Alb, 16th – Luke Richards. Team 3rd overall.

Thanks to those parents who offered transport.

A point to think about; if all the boys who put their hands upon Monday actually turned up for the race, its probable that we could have won the team trophies as well.....

Squad Drill

This Thursday is the squad drill competition. Good luck to you all. See Mr Cutts for details.

CAMP

Only 2 weeks to go to secure your place. Deposits in ASAP please.

Football

This Saturday we have a tough match against the 1st Enfield. They are really riding high at the moment and seem to be winning everything they take part in, (usually by fluky goals.) Give it everything you have on Saturday, as last time they beat us 7-2.
