Newsletter No. 35

Notices for week commencing 24th February 2003

Welcome back to the last winter session of the year before we move into the Spring/Summer.

A lot is going to be happening in the near future, what with training courses for some, competitions for others and other events for all.

Firstly I must apologise for not getting the driving rotas out as promised, but this is purely down to the pressures of work. Thanks to all who have put their names down, and I promise that I will get it sorted as soon as I can

Football

A massive thank-you from Mr Payne to all the parents and supporters who turned up this Saturday to watch the first round match of the Cup. Chris telephoned me after the match had finished, and couldn't praise the team high enough. WELL DONE.

Annual Camp Re-union and Camp supper.

Thank you also to all who turned up for the Company Supper last week. A few of the 'Old Boys' called me after to say thank-you and to praise the boys for their behaviour, and to say how glad they were that the Company was still there and going from strength to strength. Please keep it up.

Camp Video

Those of you who saw the video of last years camp have approached me to ask when it will be on sale. Martin McBride has assured me that it will be on sale soon, but needs to know how many copies to make. Attached to this newsletter therefore is a request slip for a copy of the video. All profits from this video will go towards providing more activities at this years Camp

Battalion Competition Day

This Saturday (no football) is the battalion competition and training day at the 1st Enfields' HQ. WE as a Company are entered in most if not all of the days events, including the drill competitions and the Tug-of-war. Please listen out for notices at the end of tonight for times, but failing that please be at the hall at 10:00 a.m. Saturday Morning. ALL boys are requested to attend.

Uniform.

I am noticing that there are a few members who are still not in the correct uniform for Company section. This will soon cause problems if your son is entered in a uniformed competition, and has either incorrect or missing items of uniform. Please see me at any time to order replacement items.
