Notices for week commencing 10th March 2003

Well done to all who played and supported the football team last Saturday. Unconfirmed reports have come back to me that we won 2-1, so BRILLIANT. Our next match is not until the 29th March now, so two weeks rest before we meet the 10th Enfield. They didn't bother to show for the last match. Now if we win that, we should win the group A, which means we will play the Runner up of group B. Assuming that we win that, odds are that we will meet the 1st Enfield in the Final. What a match that will be. If we lose however, that means that we could meet the 1st in the semis.

Well done also to those who turned up for the PR games competition last Wednesday. I know we came last, but to me that is not the point at the moment. None of the boys taking part had participated in that competition before, so it was invaluable experience for them when we enter next year. From what I heard it was a bit of an insight into how much teamwork is really necessary when playing those games. Halfhearted practice usually results in a poor performance, especially when the team isn't at full strength. On that point, thanks to Liam and Gavin who stepped in at the last minute to take part.

I understand from Mr. Payne that they were late in getting home, due to their kit being locked in a room and having to wait an hour for the caretaker to return and open up. Obviously I apologise for any inconvenience incurred, but I understand that Mr. Payne arranged taxis from the station to get them home as soon as possible, and wrote letters to the parents concerned explaining the situation.

Leadership Training

This coming Saturday Mr. Cutts and I will be taking Ben, Cameron, Liam, Howard, Anthony and John to Bromley for the Leadership 3 training course. I know you will wish them the best in successfully passing that.

Church Parade

From what I understand the numbers of attendees at Church Parade was down on last months. I hope those who weren't present had a valid excuse.
