Newsletter No. 44

Notices for week commencing 2nd June 2003

Welcome back from yet another break!! Thank you to all the parents and friends that turned up to the Jazz concert the other Friday. After all deductions we cleared about £350 profit. Considering that we had space for 200 people, and only 84 turned up, that wasn't bad. It's a shame that so few people were there, otherwise the monies raised would have amounted to well over £1000 profit, and that wouldn't have included the profit from the bar!!!!

Athletics Competition

On Saturday 14th June, the Battalion Athletics meeting will be held at the QE2 Stadium at Carterhatch. I will give details of times etc. next week, but I'm sure your son would welcome encouragement as he is hurtling around the track at the speed of light!!

Cricket

Summers here and football is finished (hooray). That means the cricket season is upon us, and the battalion 6 a side cricket match is 21st June (as the diary) providing the date is available, if this date is not available we will then be trying to get either Sunday 22nd June or Sunday 6th July. Details will follow. All boys who can play cricket and are keen to represent the Company should see me as soon as possible.

Camp

Most of the monies are now in and the site and trains are booked. Full details for all boys attending camp will be sent out shortly, as well as a date for the parents meeting. This year also. As most of the tent commanders will be relatively new to the job, as will the 2ic's, we will be holding a training day for them. Date to be announced. It will be well worth attending this, as without it you won't know what we are looking for when doing tent inspection, kit inspection etc.

Email

Finally, if you would like to receive this newsletter, and any other letters and information via email, (that way you are guaranteed to get it and it saves me postage), please email me on alan.rushbrook@lineone.net or alanr@hpr.co.uk, I will then add you to the distribution list.

Have a nice week
