Notices for week commencing 7th July 2003

Jumble Sale

Volunteers needed please to distribute leaflets and have posters in the windows for the forthcoming Jumble Sale on the 26th July. Leaflets will be available this week.

London Athletics

Well done to Lloyd, Ben and Cameron who were picked by the Battalion to take part in the London Athletics. At the time of writing I have no details of how the Battalion finished overall, but Ben won both the 800mtrs and the 1500mtrs, and we think Lloyd came second in the Javelin. Cameron unfortunately has invented a new sport of running as fast as you can, and then trying to stop in the shortest distance using only your knees. Not a good idea on concrete. I don't think we'll be using this idea for future badge classes, but nice try Cam.

Swimming

Next week we have planned to go swimming. Please bring £3.50 which will cover entry etc. Please be at the hall by 7:15.

Company Golf Day

This is booked for the 29th August and is open to all parents, old boys, staff, helpers and guests. Boys are of course welcome, but please bear in mind that this is a proper course, so a set of clubs, shoes etc are required, as well as an understanding of the game and etiquette.

If you are coming to camp you will have discovered whose tent you are in and what you need to make/wear. prepare for camp. The only thing I will say on this is the more you join in and take part, the more you will get out of it.

Have a nice week
