Notices for week commencing 20th October 2003

News

We were saddened last week by the news of the death of L.Cpl. Liam Prails' father, and later in the week with the news of the sudden and unexpected death of Marianne Berry, who was the Church secretary. Our thoughts and prayers go out to Liam and his family, and Arthur, Mariannes' husband.

The first expedition walk that was planned for yesterday didn't go ahead through lack of numbers. A poster was put on the wall last Monday asking you to put your names down if you wanted to go. Sadly none did. You asked for events like this to be organised, so I was somewhat surprised at the lack of support and enthusiasm. Please let me know if you want us to organise events like this, otherwise we wont bother. A point to bear in mind is that you won't be eligible to come away to the weekends expedition walks in either Derbyshire or the Lake District if you don't attend the training walks.

2nd Enfield Weekend Camp, October 24th/25th/26th.

Chris will be passing information to those boys concerned. We wish them well for this coming weekend.

Football Training

Thursday 7:30 Start.

Football.

Sadly the Senior team lost 5-0 against the 10th, but I am reliably informed that you played them off the field in the first half, but tired in the second. Nil Desperandum kiddiwinks. Work at it and the rewards will come. No matches at all this weekend.

Ten Pin Bowling Competition

This will be held on the 1st November. £5 per head to enter, but this counts for all games, shoe hire etc. Be at Lloyd Lanes at 9:30a.m. Names to be put on the poster in the hall please.

Next week is Half Term. I will be arranging a quasar evening, so bring £5 which will get entrance, games and some left over for drinks. Be at the Hall for 7:15p.m. latest. NO UNIFORM.

The following Monday (3rd) will be uniform as usual, with Remembrance Sunday Parade on the 9th.

Hope you have a nice week.

God Bless
