Notices for week commencing 10th November 2003

Remembrance Parade

Thanks to the 12 boys who turned up in the morning for one of the most important parades of the year. I was very impressed with the smart turn out, and comments from some of the elders in the church was most encouraging. Well Done

It was a shame however that only 6 of you managed to make it to the afternoon parade in Enfield, especially as you told me in the morning that you would be there. Still, the Battalion as a whole made a very impressive sight as we led the old soldiers through the Town to the Cenotaph. Thanks to John, Howard, Ben, Mark, Kym and Kadeem who braved the elements.

Battalion Quiz Competition

This will be on Friday 14th November. 6 boys needed in total, so I need five more to join Yanick (the brain) in the team. The competition consists of ten rounds of ten questions, with subjects including General Knowledge, Music, Sport, The Bible, Current Affairs etc. Your support in what should be a really fun event would be appreciated. Please be at the Hall at 7:15p.m. on Friday evening. The evening should finish at about 9:00p.m.

Badminton, Volleyball and 5 a side Competitions

These will be held on Saturday 29th November. More details next week.

Football Training

Thursday 7:30 Start. Please do not break any more lights!!

Football.
