Notices for week commencing 1st December 2003

News

Well done to the badminton and football teams who both spent a long day at Paternoster Sports Centre on Saturday. The badminton went on for so long they had to cancel the volleyball, and we even ran out of time to finish the junior football. The results as they stood were that we finished 3rd in the senior badminton, 3rd in the junior badminton, 3rd in the senior football and as yet I have not had a result about the junior 5 a side, but since we won all our matches I will be the first to bring issue if they don't award us the trophy. Thanks go to Cameron, John, Howard, Kym, Rory, Ben, Mark, Merlin, Kadeem, Luke, Gavin, Robert, & Nikky, who all took part, and to Mrs Murfitt and Mrs Karpasitis who assisted with transport.

London Basketball and PR games

This will be held in Enfield Grammar School this coming Saturday 6th December. Please meet at Enfield Grammar no later than 1:45p.m. for registration of competitors. We should finish around the 5 o'clock mark. (give or take an hour!!)

Football Training

Thursday 7:30 Start.

Football.

No football due to above competitions

Church Parade

The next Church Parade is Sunday 14th December, which will also include promotions. Usual rules apply with regard to attendance. We have been asked to do this service as well, so I will be contacting some of you to help in the service. If you want to help, come and see me as soon as possible.

Hope you have a nice week.
God Bless
