Notices for week commencing 8th December 2003

News

Very well done to the P R Games and Basketball teams, who took part in the London Competitions at Enfield Grammar School on Saturday. The results were very good indeed. In the PR games we came third in London, but WON the Enfield Competition by beating all the other Enfield Companies. They then went on to finish second in the basketball, in a close fought series of final matches, only losing to the 70th London who were last years winners by two baskets; and even though we had more shots we just couldn't score. Not bad for our first year entering.

The final results for the PR games were as below. Thanks to Richard, Cameron, John, Howard, Rory, and Kadeem, for taking part, and Luke as sub.

In last weeks newsletter I thanked certain people for helping with lifts, but was then had a go at by a certain young(!) lady for omitting to mention her attendance. To keep things constant then, I will forget to say that she was also there this Saturday.
