Notices for week commencing 26th January 2003

News – Would you eat a woodlouse? If the answer is no, then you won't be wanting to come on the Easter Expedition this year. If the answer is yes, or not sure, then this weekend is for you. The reason I mention the woodlouse is, is that it featured on the menu that I brought back from my survival weekend. If you come on the Easter Weekend this and other delicacies like the slug and dandelion may be on the menu, so don't miss out!!!

Seriously though, all boys year 9 and above are eligible so please get your slips and deposit in by next week.
