Notices for week commencing 22nd March 2004

News

Both football teams played excellently this week. With the most boys turning up this season, we had two full teams to enter, and even I made a surprise appearance which obviously gave the boys the encouragement they needed.(?) The Juniors beat the 10th Enfield 9-3 in their cup match, whilst the Senior team beat the 133rd 9-0 in a bad tempered league clash and the 10th Enfield 4-0 in a frantic 20 minute cup game. This means that the Juniors go through to the next round of the cup, but because the Seniors lost 3-0 last week to the 11th, they miss out on the final as the 11th beat the 10th 9-0 also. Unlucky boys, especially as you were really starting to play together as a team.

Football.

There are no league or cup matches this Saturday, but we have the option of playing a Senior match against the 11th/16th at 4 p.m. if you wish. Let Alan Rice-Smith know this week.

Summer Camp

Please think seriously now if you want to come on this. The dates are July 24th to 31st. Cost £105 per person. Ask anyone who has been before and they will tell you how brilliant it is. Definitely not to be missed. Deposits need to be in now.

Queens Badge

Richard Lyus attends his final course towards his Queens Badge this week. We wish him all the best and pray that the big boys don't pick on him at night!!

Church Parade

This Sunday is the Battalion Church Parade at the 10th Enfield. Please be at our all at 9:30 a.m. Full Uniform. Help with Transport will be needed. All the senior staff are away this weekend, so the Junior staff will be in charge. Please do not let Chris, Andrew or Peter down, especially as Chris and Andrew should be made up to Lieutenants at this parade. Be there to cheer them on. If you have an offer of transport please let Chris know on 07950309634.

Hope you have a nice week.
God Bless
