Notices for week commencing 5th July 2004

News

Thanks and well done to Ben, John, Cameron, Gavin, Rory and Luke to turned up on Saturday for the London Athletics. Unsurprisingly this was won by the 70th London, but we cam a close second, miles ahead of all the other Battalions and Companies. We should stand a better chance of winning next year as the team will be chosen from the Battalion Athletics by times and distances, rather than trying to fit the age groups.

Jumble Sale

This is booked for Saturday 17th July at 10:30 a.m. but a lot of work has to be done before that can happen. Yesterday I printed and cut 4000 leaflets that need to be dropped through peoples doors. Thanks to those boys who did a lot of that this evening, Monday, but I bet that there are still a lot of roads to cover. Any volunteers please come forward. Also help will b e needed on the Friday night beforehand to set up after Junior section have finished, as well as selling on the day and clearing up afterwards. Again please call me if you can offer any assistance.

Next Monday

Weather permitting we will be over Whitewebbs, so wear clothing suitable for rolling around in!!!

Camp

Is nearly upon us, so start baking those lovely cakes, especially ones with lots of currants and prunes as it keeps the boys regular!!

Hope you have a nice week.
God Bless
