Notices for week commencing 20th September 2004

News

Thanks to John, Howard, Kym, Ben Mark, Nicky, and Kadeem who turned up to the harvest festival on Sunday, and to the two who telephoned me. Where were the rest of you! I mention this, as the football season is starting this Saturday with a friendly match (see details below) and I am sure that you don't want me to have to bring in the rule of "No Church - no football do you?....."

The next Church Parade is a Battalion one on the 17th October. Full attendance required.

Welcome to Jake and Jason who joined the Company last Monday. I hope you stay and have a lot of fun.

Parental consent forms

To date I have only had eight parental consent forms returned to me. I need the remainder by next Monday please without fail, otherwise you will not be able to take part in any of the activities we offer. This especially refers to football, as without the form YOU WILL NOT PLAY.

Battalion Weekend Camp

This has been cancelled, but our weekend camp organised by Mr Payne & Co. on the 1st and 2nd of October will be going ahead. Names on the sheet please as places are limited

Football

Saturday is a friendly round robin tournament before the season starts fully. Please be at the hall at 1:30 or at Carterhatch for 1:45. KO at 2:00p.m. for juniors, 3:00 for seniors.

Uniform and subs

I have ordered a few items of uniform but if you know your son needs some PLEASE get your form and monies in and let me know. We are a uniformed organisation, not a boys club, so lads turning up in baggy football strip and old trainers is not acceptable. If you need another uniform sheet let me know.

Please also send in your subs as soon as possible as we need to pay capitation and insurance fees at the end of the month.

Hope you have a nice week.

God Bless

Alan Rushbrook - Officer in Charge Company Section
