News

Congratulations to Mr McBride and Charlotte who got engaged in Portugal last week. All the staff and boys wish them well and are looking forward to the nuptials!!!

Football

Well done again to the seniors who played a great match so I am told against the 10th London last Saturday. We are still undefeated, as we won 7-1. I don't know the scorers as yet as I was escorting the Juniors to the London 5-a side. After a grueling 2 ¼ hour journey to Wandsworth, (bettered only by the 2 ½ hour journey back, we missed the first game, but were generously given it as a draw. The other matches went as follows. Us against :- 1st Barnet lost 3-2; 70th London won 3-0; 2nd Ruislip drew 1-1; 48th London lost 5-0; 11th Croydon A won 2-1; 4th Ealing lost 2-1. Thanks to Yanick, Gavin, Luke, Merlin and Robert who took part. I think we finished about 4th overall with the 48th London winning.

Just a short footnote to this. If I say please be at the hall by 12:30, that does mean 12:30. If you are late and you haven't phoned, you may miss the transport, as we can't wait forever.

This Saturday there is a Junior rematch against the 1st/12th Enfield against whom we drew 4-4 at the beginning of the season, and a Seniors match against the 1st/12th/16th who we drew 2-2 when last played. Lets keep the winning run going please. Both matches are home so if we don't have someone who can referee then we may lose the home advantage and have theirs instead. Usual times apply of Hall at 1:30 or Carterhatch at 1:45

Other Competitions

10 Pin Bowling

This Saturday is the 10 Pin Bowling Competition at the Hollywood Bowl, Finchley in the morning (9:00 to be precise) and then football as usual in the afternoon. Please be at the hall at 9:00 am at the latest.

Also, the following Friday the 3rd December is the Battalion Quiz Competition, so now is the time to start reading the papers, (not the Daily Sport), for news and current affairs. A team of our six brainiest is needed.

Hope you have a nice week.
God Bless
