News

Thanks to the eight, yes, eight boys who turned up as requested to this months church parade. I only had reasons from 2 boys for absence. To say I am disappointed with the rest of you is an understatement and I shall be reviewing the requirements for attendance in the New Year.

Football

Well done to the Junior team who thrashed the 11th/10th and 1st Hoddeston 8-0. our best result of the season, and we still only had seven against their nine. Well done, please keep it up.

The seniors had probably the toughest match of their season so far. It was 0-0 at half time after a very bruising first half. We started the second half well, with a couple of runs at goal but couldn't get enough men up front in support quick enough to make them count. We went 1-0 down later in the half to a very dubious penalty when their striker went down in the box, although no contact was made. The rest of the half was very tense, with their captain spitting the dummy by picking up and kicking the ball at Kadeem who was all over him like a rash, which resulted in Kad being warned by the referee and a drop ball decision. How does that work. Answers on a post card please.

The rematch is going to be very interesting

This Saturday we have both Junior and Senior matches against the 1st Barnet. Last time we played the juniors lost 4-1 and the seniors won 6-0. Usual times apply of Hall at 1:30 or Carterhatch at 1:45. Please can ALL players in the teams turn up, as we must field a full strength side for these matches.

This week

Caroling will continue both tomorrow and Wednesday. 7:15 at the Hall. All volunteers for collecting are very welcome. The Christmas Carol Service will be this coming Sunday starting at 16:00hrs. Arrive early to guarantee a seat as the church is always full for this service.

Next Meeting

This will be the last Monday before Christmas. We will resume again on 10th January 2005.

On behalf of the Staff and myself may I take this opportunity to wish you and your family very Happy Christmas and a safe, healthy and prosperous New Year.

Hope you have a break.

God Bless
